ECONOMIC &amp; WORKFORCE BRIEF SERIES

The Economic and Workforce Brief is a product developed for Penn State's Institute for Research in Training & Development to provide workforce planners, educators, and journalists a quick-response report that describes the macroeconomic effect of a change in industry employment (e.g., plant closing or opening or a natural disaster) on total county jobs, employee compensation, and local property taxes.

COLUMNS PUBLISHED IN PENNSYLVANIA BUSINESS CENTRAL &amp; MARCELLUS BUSINESS CENTRAL

Between in June 2008 and July 2013, Passmore and Rose Baker were contributing columnists for Pennsylvania Business Central (PBC) for which they wrote a monthly article about economic and workforce issues that affect a 16-county region in western and central Pennsylvania. Starting in June 2011, PBC started publishing Marcellus Business Central (MBC) as the first issue to appear in any month. Passmore and Baker's column appeared in MBC when their work dealt with Marcellus Shale issues.
